

Redeemer Lutheran Church
Special Congregational meeting
8/30/09
Minutes

Called to order by Redeemer President Paul Schutz immediately following worship service.

Purpose of meeting is to discuss the next phase of the loan process, previously discussed. Next phase cost are estimated to be about $140,000, which will get us to the point of occupancy for the upstairs. (Interim loan was $85,000)

Motion by Joy Anderson and seconded by Eric Westerfield, to keep going forward with the loan process and building project, up to $140,000. There was discussion, questions asked and answered. Call for the question, Motion passed unanimously.

There was discussion about the downstairs kitchen remodel. Joy has picked the paint and samples of the flooring are on the Oak table for feedback.

Meeting adjourned,

Respectfully submitted,

Jonet Schutz
